Dear Mayor Sanders,

My name is Christina Lublin and I am a producer for the television series, the Dog Whisperer with Cesar Millan, which airs on the National Geographic channel. We have the good fortune of taping segments all over United States and visiting many dog friendly locations. This past July, we taped a segment for our show with a couple from San Diego. The couple took us to a popular, dog friendly beach area at Fiesta Island. We had such a great day at Fiesta Island. Cesar Millan, a renowned dog behaviorist, commented on how much he enjoyed his day at Fiesta Island. We all wished there were more dog friendly areas, like Fiesta Island, in the Los Angeles area.

We were saddened to hear about plans to develop Fiesta Island. On behalf of the tax-paying citizens who frequent this area, we ask that the 93 acre, fenced leash-free area on Fiesta Island remain in tact. Should the area be developed, the dogs and their owners that enjoy Fiesta Island on a regular basis would greatly suffer, considering there are so few off-leash dog beaches in Southern California.

Please, in the interest of your citizens and fiscal responsibility, do not let the area of Fiesta Island be destroyed when there are logical and simple solutions available.

Sincerely,

Christina Lublin
Producer
